A class session for obedience and rally is defined as one class per week, a one hour time- frame, with a duration of six weeks and not necessarily consecutive weeks based on scheduling conflicts of the instructor and/or students, i.e., SNKC held agility trials or conformation/obedience shows, inclement weather.

Full Payment is expected at the first class for a six week session. There will be no reductions in the cost of the class due to scheduling conflicts that may occur which prevents a person from attending less than those six weeks. Any changes in the schedules and duration will be decided upon by the instructor and the 2nd vice president. The instructor may accommodate allowing a student to join another class for a make-up within the session if the class size and schedule will allow for it.

If the class session you have paid for in advance is canceled by the club, a refund will be given.

No refunds will be given after attendance of the first class.
